

Coach's Pay – Team Accounts

Coaches bill DYSA for training sessions and weekly games. A trainer's monthly hours are turned into the Director of Coaching, who then verifies them and forwards to DYSA office for payment.

Coaching Pay Scale

$25 – College trainers

$30 – USSF E license/ multi-year college trainer/ non-volunteer coach with playing & coaching experience

$35 – USSF D license

$40 – USSF C license

$45 - USSF B license

$50 - USSF A license

Coaches are paid the designated amount per session and per weekend non-tournament day, out of club coaching funds.

If a team has one non-tournament game on Saturday – coach paid designated amount (same as training fee) from club.

Example:

If a college trainer coaches one game on Saturday – paid $25. If a college trainer coaches two games on Saturday – paid $25. If a college trainer coaches one game on Saturday & one on Sunday – paid $50.

League Play

Club pays coaching fee for league games. For away games Team covers gas (.49/mile) and food ($30/day) for coach.

Tournament Weekends

All of the coach's/ trainer's expenses for a tournament should be taken care of by team: Hotel, gas (.49/mile), food ($30/day), coaching ($50/day).

Coach/Trainer

For a two day weekend tournament a trainer/coach should receive a per diem of $60 ($30 x 2 food), $100 ($50. X 2 coach), hotel, and gas.
